Awareness about the Sankranthi Festival

- Background

- Makar Sankranti is observed with social festivities such as colourful decorations, rural children going house to house, singing and asking for treats in some areas, melas (fairs), dances, kite flying, bonfires and feasts.

- Who Celebrates:

- Makar Sankranti is the first Hindu festival that is celebrated with great pomp and enthusiasm across India and usually takes place in January. It is a major harvest festival celebrated by Hindus across India, but different states celebrate the festival under different names, traditions, and festivities.

- Story:

- According to Hindu legend, Sankranti vanquished the demon Sankarasur. The day following, Makar Sankranti is referred to as Karidin or Kinkrant. On this day, Devi slew the demon Kinkarasur. Also, it is believed that flying kites on this day in the refreshing wind brings good fortune.
