NATIONAL VOTERS DAY - 25-01-2018

National Voters Day is observed on January 25th every year. The day is celebrated to mark the foundation day of the Election Commission of India, which was established on this day in 1950. The aim of National Voters Day is to encourage, facilitate, and maximize voter registration and participation in the electoral process.

The main objective of National Voters Day is to create awareness among the citizens of India about the importance of voting and the role it plays in strengthening democracy. It is also a day to appreciate and recognize the efforts of election officials and other stakeholders who work tirelessly to ensure free, fair, and peaceful elections in the country.

On National Voters Day, the Election Commission of India also presents the National Awards for Best Electoral Practices to recognize the outstanding contribution of election officials, civil society organizations, and media organizations towards promoting free and fair elections in the country. 10th National Voters Day is celebrated by the department of Political Science on 25-01-20

Objectives and outcomes of National Voters Day include:

1. Voter Registration Drives: Organizing campaigns and events to encourage eligible citizens to register themselves as voters.
2. Voter Education: Spreading awareness about the importance of voting, electoral processes, and the significance of democratic participation.
3. Youth Engagement: Targeting young voters to increase their participation in the electoral process through various awareness programs and activities.
4. Inclusivity: Ensuring that marginalized communities, including women, minorities, and persons with disabilities, are also encouraged and facilitated to register as voters.
5. Technology Integration: Introducing technological innovations to streamline the voter registration process and make it more accessible and efficient.
6. Celebrating Democracy: Recognizing the role of voters in upholding democracy and celebrating the democratic values enshrined in the Indian Constitution.
7. Awards and Recognitions: Honouring individuals and organizations that have made significant contributions to the electoral process and voter awareness.
8. Feedback and Evaluation: Collecting feedback from voters and stakeholders to assess the effectiveness of voter registration drives and awareness campaigns and identify areas for improvement.

Overall, the outcomes of National Voters Day aim to strengthen democracy by encouraging greater participation, fostering inclusivity, and promoting awareness of electoral processes among citizens.
